

ROAD TO RECOVERY: Strategies for ReEmployment

December 14-15, 2010

Hyatt Regency Crystal City

Arlington, Virginia

The Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration is pleased to invite you to join us for two days of engaging workshops, lively discussions, informative action clinics and collegial networking events focused on getting America back to work.

CONFERENCE GOALS

Conference sessions will:

- Help the workforce system target resources to successfully reemploy unemployed workers.
- Provide participants with an opportunity to share successful practices, build skills, and advance the national discussion about the design and delivery of reemployment services for the nation's unemployed.
- Emphasize holistic service delivery strategies, including the continuum of services from Rapid Response to Unemployment Insurance and Trade Adjustment Assistance, to WIA-funded employment and training services, Apprenticeship, Job Corps, and other skills transferability and training services, and the development and use of timely workforce information.
- Acknowledge and build on the workforce systems reemployment efforts of the last two years,

Who Should Attend?

Representatives from:

- Unemployment Insurance Programs
- Rapid Response
- Trade Adjustment Assistance Program
- National Emergency Grants
- State Workforce Agencies
- Workforce Investment Boards
- One Stop Career Centers
- Registered Apprenticeship Programs
- Employers
- Organized Labor & Labor Management Organizations
- Education And Training Institutions
- Economic Development Organizations
- Social Service Agencies and Community Partners
- National And Community Philanthropic Organizations
- Federal Departments And Agencies
- Reemployment And Job Creation Thought Leaders
- And Many More!

including new and expanded efforts funded under the Recovery Act.

- Address the new realities of prolonged unemployment and the need for many workers to up-grade their skills to find good jobs.
- Share innovative and evidence-based reemployment services delivery strategies while also learning from unsuccessful strategies.

Conference Updates!

Please check this website often. Periodic updates will be provided.

Meeting Planning Services are being provided by Giuffrida Associates, Inc. of Washington, DC.

December 14-15, 2010

Hyatt Regency Crystal City

Arlington, Virginia

Who Should Attend?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Labor and Employment Organizations • State Workforce Agencies • National Employment Grants • Trade Adjustment Assistance Programs • Rapid Response • Unemployment Insurance Programs
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Registered Apprenticeship Programs • One Stop Career Centers • Workforce Investment Boards • State Workforce Agencies • National Employment Grants • Trade Adjustment Assistance Programs • Rapid Response • Unemployment Insurance Programs
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employers • Organized Labor & Labor Management Organizations • Education and Training Institutions • Economic Development Organizations • Social Service Agencies and Community Partners • National and Community Philanthropic Organizations • Federal Departments and Agencies • Research and Job Creation Programs • And many more!

The Department of Labor Employment and Training Administration is pleased to invite you to join us for two days of interactive workshops, lively discussion, informative networking and collegial networking events focused on getting America back to work.

CONFERENCE GOALS

- Help the workforce system successfully reemploy unemployed workers
- Find the participants with an opportunity to share successful practices, build skills, and advance the national discussion about the design and delivery of reemployment services for the nation's unemployed
- Emphasize evidence-based delivery strategies, including the continuum of services from Rapid Response to Unemployment Insurance and Trade Adjustment Assistance, to WIA-funded employment and training services, Apprenticeship, Job Corps, and job skills trainability and training services, and the development and use of timely workforce information
- Acknowledge and build on the workforce system reemployment efforts of the last two years